

Super cute cardboard "hutch"

Try this with a big box and let your bunny have some fresh air and access to fresh grass for a while in the day. This "hutch" also allows move the box around to fresh grazing areas as needed!

Although this should preferably only be used under supervision, this idea works best with house bunnies that are not serious cardboard shredders.